1.	Admiral Turner			Attached is a revised courtesy call list broken out into three orders of priority. I have included members of the Appropriations Committees in the first priority since we are in the midst of our budget hearings and it is important that these members know you and have a feel for your general disposition on matters of interest to them. I have included the key staff people on our oversight committees because they are extremely influential and in many instances will determine which way our committees will lean on budgetary and other issues. I will give you a brief rundown on each of the individuals in the first priority on Monday and will provide similar information on the other two groups as you get to them.
